IN ANY SEASON, IN ANY WEATHER,
THE CAMPUS HAS A SPECIAL BEAUTY.

THE YEAR IN RETROSPECT

The school year 1960-61 was a time marked by history. It was the year of the "Great Debates" and long campaign struggle between John F. Kennedy and Richard M. Nixon. In the end, Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, won the Presidency with the smallest popular-vote margin ever. In Montana, Donald G. Nutter was elected Governor and promptly rocked the University system with his "budget cuts." The Congo Crisis; Laos; the Kennedy Clan; Berlin; and Astronaut Alan Shepherd, USN; were familiar names for millions of Americans.

During 1960-61 MSU continued to grow, as these pictures of the new Health-Science building (top) and the new Law School (bottom) show.

AUTUMN QUARTER

Freshman Camp, held the weekend before Orientation Week, gave freshmen, upperclassmen and faculty members a chance to get acquainted and to discuss campus issues.

The Orientation Week committee, under the direction of Myrna Eyerly, planned and coordinated the week's activities.

ORIENTATION WEEK

Bearpaw Denis Adams and Spur Peggy Josephson lead a group of parents and new students on a tour of the campus.

Spurs Susan Wetzel, Marlene Kolesar, Sally Holton and Felicia Hardison sell beanies to some freshmen.

ORIENTATION WEEK

Freshmen convened in the Field House to take entrance tests.

Orientation Week Group Leaders were sophomore, junior and senior students chosen to help the incoming freshmen adjust to campus life.

All students living in the dorms eat their meals in the Treasure State room of the Lodge.

The campus patrolman shows Vern Anderson the correct position for the new parking stickers which were issued at registration.

Students meandering toward Elrod Hall from the Chemistry building, Journalism School or the men's Gym had two choices. Either walk across the grass by the planetarium, or try this narrow bridge across the ditch beside the new Health-Science building as Roger Kramis did.

Bearpaws Jack Griffith and Doug Grimm pose with the stone, Hello-Walk marker, which was removed to make way for the addition to the Liberal Arts building.

HOMECOMING

First recipients of the MSU Alumni Distinguished Service Award were, left to right: Mrs. E. E. Powers (Dorothy Rochon '43), Fred E. Buck '06, Dr. Jessie M. Bierman '21, and Jack T. Daniels '55. Judge George H. Boldt LL.B. '26 is not pictured.

Faculty members Castle, Cogswell and Hertler serve at the barbecue.

Members of the Forestry Club cut approximately 1100 Douglas fir trees for the Ball.

FORESTER'S BALL

Joe Remick puts the finishing touches on a window.

The Saloon takes shape in the Field House.

Dr. Vedder Gilbert taps Glen Aaseim for Bearpaw, sophomore men's service honorary.

The Outstanding Bearpaw award for 1959-60 Bearpaws went to Doug Grimm. Denis Adams, 1959-60 Bearpaw president, presented the award on behalf of the group.

MSU Spurs hosted the regional convention this year. Myra Shults, MSU Spur president, is shown, at far left, as she talks to visiting Spurs and a national Spur officer.

"Campaign fever" arrived early in the fall at MSU when the freshmen elected delegates to Central Board.

GOP candidates Donald G. Nutter and Orvin Fjare campaigned on campus.

Democrat Ted Kennedy visited campus to speak on behalf of his brother, John.

The Bobcats lost the football game and MSC student body president, Arjay Godson, lost his trousers to ASMSU prexy, Paul Ulrich.

The Christmas SOS marked the end of the fall quarter.

The pressure of studies and finals was too much for some.

WINTER QUARTER

This picture, posed by Kaimen photographer Jerry Hassinger with the help of Stan Bolle and dog, spoofs the "lake" that covered the Oval in February.

Students began registration procedures by conferring with advisers.

Long lines filled both the Cascade and Yellowstone rooms as students waited to pay fees and check out.

Most students, after struggling through the one-day registration, expressed the hope that procedures would be simplified or two-day registration would be renewed.

ONE-DAY REGISTRATION . . .
AND IT WAS LINES, LINES, LINES.

Pom-pon girls Susie Frizell and Karen Upshaw boost "school spirit" during a basketball game.

Basketball games were familiar weekend and sometimes week-day entertainment. Here MSU's Steve Lowrey (4) jumps against a University of Wyoming player as teammates Paul E. Miller (10) Kay Roberts (22) and Dan Sullivan stand ready.

SKI WEEKEND

Many students indulged in this favorite winter sport during Ski Weekend, sponsored by the Ski Club.

The Four Freshmen were among the "big-name" entertainment brought to campus by ASMSU.

SADIE HAWKINS

Spur Susan Wetzel threatens to paint Bear-paw Dave Browman as they work on decorations for the annual Sadie Hawkins dance.

LEGISLATURE

Governor Donald G. Nutter speaks to MSU journalism students about the problems of the University budget. From left to right are: Bob Amick, Millie Bergland, Governor Nutter, Jim Graff.

Parents attended lectures given by MSU faculty members. Here, Dean Blomgren of the School of Business Administration addresses a group.

Jerry Agen, Director of Public Relations for ASMSU, welcomes parents of MSU students on Parents' Day.

PARENTS' DAY

Members of Aquamaids entertained with water ballet and synchronized swimming routines.

At the end of the day, parents and students enjoyed a banquet in the Lodge. Entertainment was by the MSU Jubileers.

MSU zoology professor, Dr. Ludvig Browman, has developed the only strain of "blind" mice in the world. The mice are used for various experimental purposes.

RESEARCH — AN IMPORTANT PART OF THE PROGRAM OF NEARLY EVERY SCHOOL AND DEPARTMENT ON CAMPUS.

Doctors Van Meter (left) and Osterheld (right) check equipment for a chemistry experiment.

Montana State University Registrar Leo Smith (right) discusses with Jean P. Mather, president of the American College Testing Program, the new research program of ACT under which the group will compute indices predicting the grades a student is likely to make in his freshman year at college. MSU has participated in the ACT program for two years.

Ross Williams, Dean of the School of Forestry, is shown receiving a $1,000 check from Arthur Will for the Forest and Conservation Research Library in the forestry school. Mr. Will, shown on the right, is the local representative for the Sears Roebuck Foundation which has given the money to the library.

During summer quarter, students work in the Radiology lab at the Biological Station at Flathead Lake.

The State Music Festival, held at MSU during the early part of spring quarter, drew high school musicians from all parts of the state.

Talented senior and junior high school students displayed their science projects at the Montana Science Fair. Dr. Reuben Diettert of the Botany Department headed the Science Fair Committee for the fifth year.

For some the beginning of a quarter means new courses, new instructors, and the renewed resolve to "study hard."

QUARTER

The Aquamaid show, Peter Pan, always a favorite on campus, was "held over by request" for an extra performance.

Above, Indians Pat Knox, Patsy Shea and Wanda Hillman hold a powwow on the pool's edge.

Right, Tiger Lily, played by Kitty Van Vliet, tries to enlist the help of the Lost Boys, played by Jerry Sammons, Mary Lynn Petterson, Helen Buros, and Gwen McLain.

Denis Adams

In the election for the ASMSU presidency, it was Adams over Ulvila by a slim 12-vote margin. Charges of "fraternity politics" and Kaimin editorials in support of certain candidates caused much comment during the campaign.

John Ulvila

THE NEWS

Coed Patti Jo Shaw returned to MSU this spring after a year of travel and public appearances as Miss Wool of America.

Jane Borden, editor of the 1960 Sentinel, proudly displays the book which won first place in yearbook competition in the Rocky Mountain area. The award was announced at the Rocky Mountain Inter-collegiate Press Association meeting in Denver, Colorado.

Mrs. Lommasson, Angel Flight adviser, congratulates Helen Cain on her selection as Coed Colonel and Angel Flight commander for the 1961-62 school year.

In spite of an early May snow, University classes moved outside for most of spring quarter.

Bed-pushing, a new collegiate fad, came to MSU as the World University Service committee sponsored a bed-pushing contest instead of the usual Chinese auction.

Linda Riedel watches as Juli Karlsgodt donates blood at the annual Red Cross blood drawing. MSU failed to meet its quota and thus lost to MSC in the contest held in connection with the drawing.

SINGING ON

Newly-tapped members of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, pose for their picture at the Mortar Board reception. From left, first row: Jordis Erickson, Ellen Parker, Martha Comer, Louise Johnson, Marva Kirby, Gloria Eudaily, Marie Stephenson, Elma Knowlton. Second row: Carol Cooper, Diane Mossey, Annette Smith, Karel Lorenzen, Dorothy McBride, Penny Loucas, Sharon Dodge, Judy Rollins.

New Mortar Board member, Penny Loucas, talks with parents and friends at the reception which followed the tapping. Parents of girls who were tapped received a special invitation from the graduating members to come to MSU for the ceremony.

ASMSU President Paul Ulrich (right) presents the Sibley Award to James Dorr Johnson. The award is given to the junior or senior student who has made the most outstanding contribution to MSU.

THE STEPS

Spur president Myra Shults taps freshman Carol Skalsky as a new member of Tanan of Spur, sophomore women's honorary.

Mrs. Albert Stone is honored for her two years of service as Spur adviser as Myra Shults taps her as an honorary Spur. Newly-tapped Spurs Joan Smith, Carol Wilson, Barbara Young, and Ann Wolhowe smile with approval.

Silent Sentinel honored junior men when Dr. Robert Turner tapped them for membership. Here, Dr. Turner congratulates Denis Adams on his selection for membership.

Here, James Eversole, director of the Treasure State Band, acts as announcer at the outdoor band concert held during Senior Week.

SENIOR WEEK

Friends and families joined members of the graduating class for the annual Senior Banquet.

ACTIVITIES

The procession, led by Academic Vice President Abbott, "swings out" on the way to Commencement exercises in the Field House.

RETIRING FACULTY

E. KIRK BADGLEY

On the occasion of Mr. Badgley's retirement as Controller on June 30, the Board of Regents passed the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, that upon the occasion of the retirement of E. Kirk Badgley from Montana State University, the State Board of Education, ex-officio Regents of the University of Montana, expressed its appreciation of the long and faithful service of Mr. Badgley to the University and to the State of Montana. His official connection with the University began as an undergraduate, and he has continued on during his entire adult life rendering most valuable services to the institution. During his many years tenure he has personally participated in the vital financial and fiscal problems which have faced the University, and he has played a most significant role in the progress of the institution. His quiet, friendly, thoughtful manner has been an example for fellow staff members and students alike. During his long tenure he has served faithfully on numerous boards and committees, his presence always being a stabilizing influence upon the business affairs of such groups. Always he has kept uppermost in his mind the welfare of Montana State University, and consequently, he has made a notable and lasting contribution to the institution and through it to the State which it serves."

DEDICATION

EDWARD E. BENNETT

When Mr. Bennett retired from the University on August 18, the Board of Regents passed this resolution: "RESOLVED, that upon the occasion of the retirement of Professor Edward Earl Bennett from the faculty of Montana State University, the State Board of Education, ex-officio Regents of the University of Montana, joins with students, alumni, faculty, and friends across the state and throughout the nation in expressing appreciation of his loyal service to Montana State University. During the thirty-five years of his teaching career at the University, nearly twenty thousand students have enrolled in his courses. He has taught every field of history—ancient, medieval, and modern, European and American—and for many years handled the courses in Montana history and government. His faithful service on university and community committees, his patience in advising students, and his dedication to the profession of teaching, have won him the esteem, the respect, and the admiration of those whose privilege it has been to work with him."

IN RECOGNITION OF THEIR YEARS
OF SERVICE TO MONTANA STATE
UNIVERSITY, THE STAFF IS PRIV-
ILEGED TO DEDICATE THIS 1961
SENTINEL TO MR. E. KIRK BADGLEY
AND DR. EDWARD E. BENNETT.

IN MEMORIAM

NORMAN BRUCE COLLINS

Norman Bruce Collins, 19, Missoula, was killed in a car-truck collision on Sunday, May 7, 1961. He was a sophomore at Montana State University.

Governor of Montana J. Hugo Aronson, second from right, presents a plaque to representatives of the Anaconda Company in appreciation for the gift of the Lubrecht Forest and the Bear Creek Logging Camp. The forest and camp will be used for a research center and student camp by the School of Forestry. Ross Williams, Dean of the School of Forestry, is pictured at the far right.

The School of Journalism offers courses involving both theory and practical application of journalism techniques and principles. Journalism students work on the Montana Kaimen, student daily newspaper.

"All the King's Men"

"All the King's Men," under the direction of Firman H. Brown, toured to Bozeman to perform for the Rocky Mountain Theater Conference from which it received great praise. It is a powerful and timely play about political and personal morality which raises profound questions centering around moral decay of its leading characters, the lust for power, and the age-old problem of good and evil.

Separate Tables

Terence Rattigan's "Separate Tables" won for Mr. Willis, the director, the award for the best production. "Separate Tables" in reality is two long one-act plays. In "Table By The Window" the problem is given focus by a divorced couple one of whom has loved too much and the other who has loved too little. In "Table Number Seven" the emphasis is directed by the same two actors who assume new roles to play a fearful, mother-dominated spinster and a pompous but lonely retired army officer. These four characters play out a climactic bit of their lives among others who are also marked by their need for love. Major roles were characterized by David Hunt and Marith McGinnis.

Mr. Malcolm (David Hunt) and Mrs. Shankland (Marith McGinnis) as seen in "Table By the Window."

Major Pollock (David Hunt), Mrs. Railton-Bell (Eileen Gallagher) and her daughter (Marith McGinnis) in "Table Number Seven."

Dick Willis, right, directs Miss McGinnis in a scene from "Separate Tables."

School for Scandal

"The School for Scandal," Richard Sheridan's warm, witty, scandalous play about love and marriage in the 18th Century, was directed by Eileen Gallagher, senior drama major. It is a comedy of manners in a satire on the follies of 18th century fashionable social circles. Eighteenth century costumes for the production were designed by Sarah James. Technical advisers were: Allen Goddard, scenery; Tam Scriven, assistant to the director; Sara Grey, props and Dick Willis, lights.

The Tempest

For the major play for Winter Quarter 1961, The Masquers presented William Shakespeare's final play, the tragi-comedy THE TEMPEST. This play is filled with song and dance, a sprite and a monster plus other airy spirits, a magician who rules the elements and plays the role of fate in the lives of all who come to his enchanted island. The total production was given an authentic Elizabethan quality and added delight by the effective and flexible set designed by Richard H. James, Jr., designer and technical director for the Department of Drama; the spectacle was further enhanced by the splendor of the Elizabethan costumes designed by Sarah James, costume designer for the Department of Drama.

DOUGLAS BANKSTON—Director

"The Yellow Jacket" was the Masquers' major production of the year and the play presented on the annual state wide tour. "The world's most famous Chinese play," is staged so that the stage itself is a recreation of a Chinese theater. No realistic scenery is used, instead the lavish oriental properties on stage are handled throughout the performance by property men who are part of the cast, in the tradition of the Chinese theater. "The Yellow Jacket" tells the story of the life of a young man from birth through youth to adulthood, following his experiences in love and ending with his recognition of a meaning to his life.

The Silver Cord

Suzan Howard, a senior drama major, directed THE SILVER CORD, with the able assistance of Dick Willis, Designer and Technical Director. The production deals with the question—How strong are the affections between widowed Mrs. Phelps and her grown sons. Mrs. Phelps plans David's life, which will keep him tied to her apron strings. She persuades her younger son Robert to break off his engagement to Hester. Christina, David's wife brings things to a head by offering David the choice of her or his mother. Ultimately Mrs. Phelps is left with only her younger son for consolation.

The Kissin' River, is an original musical play by Robert McKinnon, MSU senior. The play is a musical farce about a western dude ranch. The owner is Ma Yellowstone and her two daughters who become romantically entangled with a couple of dudes and a government engineer. The plot, involving a government order to change the dude ranch from a primitive area to a wilderness area, provides a great deal of fun and anxiety before an earth shaking event brings about a happy resolution.

Down in the Valley

"Down in the Valley" is a folk opera, and parts of the score are based on familiar American folk songs, including the title song, "The Lonesome Dove," "The Little Black Train" and "Sourwood Mountain." "Down in the Valley" required the additional help of a chorus, the MSU Royaleers and the MSU Chamber Band.

ART

Art displays and sales were set up in the Lodge, Library lobby, and the Fine Arts Lobby by the painters and sculptors of the Art Department. The Art Department also brought many traveling art shows and displays to campus again this year.

UNIVERSITY MUSEUM

A unique section of the University which seldom receives a word of mention is the University Museum. Its fine collection is on display in the Fine Arts building and is open to the public. The museum has collectors items from around the world which are donated by faculty members, friends and other interested people.

Paul A. Grieder, head of the Department of English at MSC said—" . . . It was a Beautifully done performance in a most difficult cut medium, and the university is to be congratulated on the quality of its ballet school under the direction of Marnie Cooper."

"An Evening of Ballet"

In seven years the ballet department, under the direction of Marnie Cooper, has to its credit fifty ballets, ranging from the classic traditional to modern ballet, opera, musical comedy and the creative modern dance. Ballet Theatre not being solely a device for public performance, but equally an educational department, has trained students from basic to advance technique. The addition of the Children's Ballet Theatre widened the scope educationally, giving University students an opportunity to work with, instruct, and create in this medium. Infused with a remarkable "esprit de corps" due in part to the high standards of performance, Ballet Theatre grew from modest beginnings to a company of state wide acclaim.

Fourth row: R. M. Oswald, A. W. Stone.

CENTRAL BOARD

Central Board, the governing body of the Associated Students of Montana State University, supervises and co-ordinates activities of the campus. It is composed of elected representatives from each class, ASMSU officers, and faculty representatives. Their main concern this year is streamlining the structure of the committee system to make it as efficient as possible. They are also concerned with providing as good a program as possible for the students, including lecture and film series and art exhibits. The ability or inability to get big-name entertainment on campus is an ever-present problem.

This governing body is a training ground for democracy, giving the students a close-up, realistic view of what a legislative body is like. It prepares the participating students for political activity in later life.

President Paul Ulrich was always willing to discuss the functions of Central Board with interested students. His main object was to keep and build student control of student money. Paul hails from Butte and is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity. He was one of two Montanans who were semi-finalists for Rhodes Scholar.

ASMSU OFFICERS

Vice President John Datsopoulos, Missoula, closely co-ordinated all the ASMSU committees, and took over the gavel in any absence of the President. He is a member of Sigma Nu social fraternity.

During Fall Quarter, Business Manager Virgil Bon, known as Pizza, maintained a close watch over student money as chairman of Budget and Finance Committee. Because of studies he resigned winter quarter. He is a member of Theta Chi and comes from Ashland, Ohio.

Secretary Diane Mossey of Denton faithfully took the minutes of Central Board meetings and distributed them over the campus. She also kept the files in good shape. Diane is a member of Delta Delta Delta social sorority.

John Ulvila, former Junior Central Board delegate, was elected Business Manager to fill the vacancy left by Bon during winter quarter. John is from Red Lodge and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity.

J-COUNCIL

Under the able leadership of Brad Dugdale, Judicial Council, the controversial student guardian of the University liquor rules, placed some students on scholastic or social probation and dismissed other charges after carefully considering their cases.

STORE BOARD

Store Board consists of five students who are elected by the entire student body, and five faculty members chosen by the University President. They control the student Book Store which is located upstairs in the Lodge.

The store was begun by a group of students in 1919 and was incorporated from 1921 to 1956. This year the Board worked on reincorporating the store.

Morris McCullom has worked as manager of the store since 1925.

BUDGET AND FINANCE

Budget and Finance Committee prepared the proposed budget of ASMSU for the 1961-62 year and supervised expenditures from the 1960-61 budget. The ASMSU Business Manager presides over the group.

Standing; left to right: Jim Johnson, Dave Browman, Cam McCallum, Harold Gilkey, Brad Nickle, Bob Lindquist, J. Dexter, Larry Spezio. LEADERSHIP CAMP

Leadership Camp, under the chairmanship of Harold Gilkey, met April 28, 29 and 30 at Flathead Lake Lodge outside Bigfork, Montana, to discuss "The 60's at MSU." Delegates from each living group, Central Board, alumni and faculty considered student problems for 1960, '61, and '62.

ACTIVITIES BOARD

Activities Board is composed of the chairmen of the activity committees and serves to co-ordinate and supervise the working of the sub-groups. Bob Morgenstern assumed the chairmanship of the group during winter quarter upon the resignation of Barbara Wheeler.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

Arts and Crafts Committee arranged to provide outstanding art exhibits at MSU. Upon the resignation of Dennis Lahr during winter quarter, Central Board appointed Juliette Deschamps as chairman of the group.

VISITING LECTURERS

Visiting Lecturers Committee arranged to bring distinguished speakers such as Vance Packard, Dr. Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., Dr. Alan Watts, and Senator Mike Mansfield to the campus this year. The group also planned the Charter Day Convocation.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Special Events Committee spent a busy year planning ASMSU dances and striving to obtain big-name entertainment such as The Four Freshmen for MSU students. Linda Porter was named chairman during winter quarter to replace Bob Morgenstern.

GAMES

Games Committee sponsored bridge lessons, bowling parties and tournaments, and ping-pong for University students and faculty among their activities this year.

MOVIES

Under the chairmanship of Jack Mueller, Movies Committee sponsored quality American and foreign films for MSU students.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Jerry Agen was chairman of Public Relations Committee which consists of these subordinate committees: Campus Visitations, Hometown News, Radio-TV, Travel Co-ordination, Secretarial Committee, and Movies Presentation. Their purpose is to inform Montana citizens of the goals, traditions, and accomplishments of MSU. Sue Cadwell undertook the duties of chairman winter quarter.

Jerry Agen

CAMPUS VISITATIONS

Campus Visitations Committee, of which Dave Browman was chairman, planned and directed all programs for campus visitors.

HOMETOWN NEWS

Hometown News Committee, under the chairmanship of Jeff Lenci, submitted stories of MSU News Service concerning the activities of students and also recommended coverage previous to campus events.

RADIO-TV

Dick Maney was chairman of the Radio-TV Committee which produced five minute interviews of the students to send to their hometowns to be broadcast.

TRAVEL CO-ORDINATION

Travel Co-ordination Committee arranged for publicity and proper distribution of touring groups throughout the state. It also prepared the budget for the following year. Chris Cheetham was chairman.

SECRETARIAL COMMITTEE

Secretarial Committee aided the director of the Public Relations Committee. It made a survey of the opinion of high schools throughout the state concerning University programs, and it also sponsored Parents' Day which was held February 25, 1961. Sue Cadwell was chairman of this committee.

Left to right: Sue Cadwell, Gail Clark, and Sharon Peterson. Missing: Goldie Christopher.

MOVIE PRESENTATIONS

Movies Presentation Committee worked to produce a movie of student campus life and activities to show to alumni and prospective MSU Students. Marti Davis assumed chairmanship of this committee winter quarter.

Standing, left to right: Mac Hamlin, Marvin Hart, John Wertz.

Seated: Marianne Whelan, Barbara Young, Lynn Eyer, Marti Davis, Char Warren, Carol Hilliard, Navis Tremblay, Sandy Rounds.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming Committee organized and supervised homecoming program and queen elections for 1960 under the co-chairmanship of Jack Griffith and Marlys Nelson.

Standing, left to right: Redge Martin, Jack Griffith, Eric Myhre.

Seated: Marlys Nelson, Sally Shiner.

WUS

World University Service Committee, under the leadership of Marcia Holmes, helped supply material assistance to staff and students throughout the world in fields of student lodging and living, health and individual and emergency aid, including refugee services.

ELECTION COMMITTEE

Elections Committee supervised all ASMSU elections and encouraged qualified students to run for offices. Ed Whitelaw was chairman.

Standing; left to right: Ed Whitelaw, Caroline Nelson, L. Lynn Jones, Janet Trask, Sally Amos, Dan Bieri.
Seated: Barbara Kaber, Susan Brown, Anne Burke.

DEBATE AND ORATORY

Debate and Oratory Committee of which Charles Vick was chairman encouraged student participation in debate and oratory. They arranged intercollegiate schedules, organized intramural debate and oratorical contest, and recommended those eligible for debate and oratory awards to Central Board.

PLANNING BOARD

Planning Committee, under the chairmanship of Jim Johnson, made suggestions for revisions in the Constitution and planned in general what would be better for ASMSU.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Intramural Sports Board, under the chairmanship of Jerry Robbins, had control over intramural sports schedules, rules for eligibility for intramural competition, and general supervision over all intramural athletics.

PUBLICITY

Publicity Committee with chairman Helen Dwelle publicized campus functions and activities upon the request of other committees.

KAIMIN

For members of the Kaimin staff, life was one constant deadline. The staff was busy continuously—fulfilling assignments, proofreading, composing, and rewriting articles to appear in next day's edition. Published daily, Tuesday through Friday, the paper covered campus events as well as state and national news.

Zena Beth McGlashan

Zena Beth McGlashan worked hard as business manager to please the advertisers and others with whom she was in contact.

The staff is always reviewing, writing, or proofing articles to appear in the next day's issue.

Standing; left to right: Adviser Edward Dugan, Barbara Williams.

Seated: Penny Wagner, Owen Ditchfield, Marie Stephenson, Gaylord Guenin.

Penny Wagner, News Editor, was startled by the camera flash while assigning reporters beats. Penny also worked in the same capacity as the associate editors.

Penny Wagner

Gaylord Guenin as Sports Editor covered all the Grizzly sports action and intramural sports.

Gloria Eudaily

Editor Gloria Eudaily spent many long hours co-ordinating the working of the Sentinel staff. Under her guidance, the staff worked frantically to meet deadlines and come up with acceptable ideas for layouts.

SENTINEL

In a regular Wednesday morning meeting, staff members discussed technicalities with William Kenney of the Taylor Publishing Company.

Standing; left to right: Mary Ellen Cawley, Penny Ammen, Jim Weiler. Seated: Judy Rodgers, Larry Juelfs, Mr. Kenney, Bev Hughes, Sharon Blaszek, Tim Richmond, Gloria Eudaily.

Larry Juelfs, Sentinel Business manager, handled contracts and kept the budget within its limits during the year. He also initiated many new programs such as distributing old yearbooks and beginning a student file system.

Larry Juelfs

By contracting with an out-of-state publisher, a larger and more colorful Sentinel was possible this year. Three more sections, more four-colored pictures and spot color were included in the expansion which was brought about with a substantial saving. It was also encouraging to note that many of this year's staff will be returning to work on the 1962 Sentinel.

Working intently late one afternoon, the staff was startled by a photographer.

Sharon Blaszek

In charge of Royalty, Student Government, and Athletics, Sharon Blaszek, associate editor, spent many hours co-ordinating committees and photographers, with the assistance of Nancy Long, Bev Hughes, and Pat Serafine.

Jim Weiler

Jim Weiler, associate editor, supervised Living Groups, Fine Arts and Activities sections. He was ably assisted by Bill Lucey during winter and spring quarters. Jim was chosen editor of the 1962 Sentinel.

Judy Rodgers

Taking over the position of associate editor in charge of class sections and administration, Judy Rodgers filled the vacancy left by Sue Greenfield.

Cyrale Van Duser

Photography Editor, Whitey McGill, and his assistant, Dale Graff, spent a busy year taking pictures and printing them to the specifications of the associate editors. Many hours were spent waiting for scheduled groups that did not show up for their pictures. Whitey took over when Doug Paulson resigned as photographer at the first of the year. Then, Dale took over during spring quarter when Whitey resigned to concentrate on studies; Diane Boehler assumed the duties of assistant photographer.

This year, the Missoula Chapter of the Montana State University Alumni Association established a $1,000 student loan fund. Pictured, left to right, are Charles Johnson, Past Chapter President, presenting the gift to Troy Crowder, Assistant to the Montana State University President, and Andrew Cogswell, Dean of Students.

Many other contributions were made to the University and University groups, during the past year. The 1961 Sentinel Staff has realized that, regardless of student budgetary allocations, the financial security of the book could not have existed on student support alone. This is a page of the merchants and professional men who have contributed to the yearbook and, therefore, to every University student. By supporting the yearbook, these firms have shown an interest in Montana State University and its student body which has earned our gratitude and a hearty "thank you."

Jim Polk was editor of Venture this year after working on the staff for the three previous years.

Christine "Tina" Bohlinger, who served as business manager, saw to it that the books were balanced.

VENTURE STAFF

Seated: Dave Hunt, Tina Bohlinger, Jim Polk, Gloria Gallagher, Dirk Van Sickle, Carolyn Carey, Allan Goddard.

VENTURE

Venture, which is printed once each quarter, is a literary magazine which offers campus writers a chance to view their work in print. This year it sponsored a contest for the best short story, essay and poem written by an MSU student. Faculty contributions caused some controversy on campus. John Schwartz was the faculty advisor.

AWS

The Associated Women Students, governed by a board of delegates from all women's living groups, formulates and enforces rules concerning social standards, campus attire and hours for women. They sponsor the Big-little sister program, Snow Weekend, mixers, the Miss MSU contest, a Christmas Benefit for Missoula children and the Lantern Parade, among other events.

Donna Arnst Mott

President Donna Mott capably presided over the functions of AWS in the midst of planning for her December wedding, and setting up housekeeping. Even through the most disturbing problems, she was able to joke.

Jordis Erickson

Vice President Jordis Erickson, in her usual good humor, saw that the proper amount of campuses were given to deserving persons.

Penny Lucas

Secretary Penny Lucas posted notices of campuses, took minutes of the meetings and efficiently took care of her other duties despite her many other campus activities.

Carol Tower

Treasurer Carol Tower resigned from her duties of signing requisitions and overseeing the budget during fall quarter.

Martha Comer

Martha Comer, having lost a close election for treasurer, was appointed to fill the vacancy left by Carol Tower. Martha maintained a close check on the budget and acted as chairman of elections during winter quarter.

FOOTBALL

The 1960 Grizzly football season was the most successful since the school became a member of the Sky-line Conference in 1950. With only eighteen returning lettermen, Coach Ray Jenkins had to draw heavily from his sophomores. They didn't fail him, several turning in fine jobs and earning starting positions in the lineup. Montana State University won both the Homecoming and Grizzly-Bobcat games, rousing the lagging interest of the student body.

GRIZZLY HONORS:

Seniors John Gregor and John Matte were elected co-captains for the 1961 season.

Quarterback Bob O'Billovich led the nation in pass defense, intercepting seven passes for a total of 68 yards.

Grizzly tackle Ed Herber lunges for the Vandal ball carrier during the 1960 Homecoming Game.

SENIORS

After turning in three years as the Grizzlies' toughest guard, senior John Matte also entered into the pass interception column during the 1960 grid-iron season. John was elected co-captain of the 1960 Grizzlies.

John Gregor, the mainstay at tackle, was coach Ray Jenkins' powerhouse in a perennially weak position. The pros expressed a definite interest in big John, who was also a co-captain of the 1960 Grizzlies.

Dale Berry, end, snagged enough passes to place him fifth among Grizzly pass receivers for the 1960 season.

Junior Paul Gustafson dumps the Vandal ball carrier during the Homecoming Game. The Grizzlies won over Idaho, 18-14.

Surprising sophomore, Ron Werba, gains yards against the Vandals in the 1960 Homecoming Game.

SENIORS

Starting center, Jim Johnson, finished his career with the Grizzlies by intercepting a pass in the end zone against Utah to rack up the only Grizzly score in the game.

End Howie Schwend snagged four passes for a total of 101 yards to end his Grizzly playing days.

COACHES

Grizzly gridiron coach Ray Jenkins enjoyed his finest season since joining the staff at MSU. Jenkins started out with a young ball club and his sophomores did not disappoint him. The line, a problem spot with the Grizzlies, was balanced with a powerful running backfield. Known as a good recruiter, Coach Jenkins can be counted on to keep the Grizzly football team supplied with tough and determined talent.

Coach Ray Jenkins

Coach Hal Sherbeck

Hal Sherbeck, freshman football coach, finished his career with the Montana State University Grizzlies by turning over to Coach Jenkins twenty-five numeral winners. Sherbeck has accepted the position of head football coach at Fullerton Junior College, Fullerton, California. His influence in training Cubs has been felt by an ever-strengthening of Grizzly grid power.

HONORS

The Dragstedt Award went to Grizzly guard Bob O'Billovich.

Kneeling; left to right: Harold Peterson and Tim Aldrich. First row: Bill Martin, Tom Dumay, Jim Baker, Jim Mason, and Bob Hauck. Second row: Coach Hal Sherbeck, Tony Dumay, Keith Law, Harold Fullerton, Larry Corcoran. Not pictured: Tom Croci.

Coach Hal Sherbeck was pleased with the work done by his freshman squad. Three out-of-staters supplemented the Montanans and enabled Sherbeck to build two strong teams. The two squads played against each other in pre-game meets when the Grizzly varsity was at home. Keith Law and Hal Peterson, both from Kankakee, Illinois, led the Cubs in scoring.

It flies through the air with the greatest of ease and is up for grabs as the Grizzlies meet Utah State.

COACHES

Forrest B. Cox came to MSU six years ago. In the ensuing years, he has devoted himself to building a stronger Skyline cage team. Known for his drive, he has instilled determination in those who worked with him. "Frosty" has also done a top-notch job of recruiting.

Hal Sherbeck, former Montana athletic great, finished his career as frosh cage coach in order to accept the position of football coach at Fullerton Junior College. Before leaving, he turned over several prospects to brighten "Frosty" Cox's life.

Naseby Rhinehart's affable manner has made him one of the most popular men in the athletic department. His ability as a trainer is well known and he has endeared himself to MSU athletes in his 26 years here as a tape-and-injury man.

 Second row: Harold (Bud) Wallace, Jim Entrichan, Hank Manz, John Allison, Bob Dick.

SWIMMING TEAM

Although the swimming team lacked the depth to compete adequately in the conference, it did very well in dual meets, winning 40 and losing 6 in the past four years. The team also moved from seventh to third in the conference dual meets. Denver came out on top in the conference with Montana placing fourth.

Harold Sherbeck and George Dahlberg

Coach Hal Sherbeck completed his career at Montana State University this year, having accepted the position of head football coach at Fullerton Junior College in Fullerton, California.

When attending MSU as a student, Sherbeck was an outstanding player in football, basketball and baseball. Upon graduation he began his coaching career at Missoula County High School where he turned out four championship teams in four years.

In 1955 Sherbeck joined the MSU coaching staff where he has coached varsity baseball and freshman football and basketball.

COACHES

After 24 years at MSU, George Dahlberg, better known as "Jiggs," has resigned his position as Director of Athletics. He will now serve as an instructor in the Physical Education Department.

Dahlberg joined the staff of Montana State University in 1937 as head basketball coach. In 1955 he became the Director of Athletics.

A very faithful and enthusiastic supporter of collegiate athletics, Dahlberg has continued to be a hard-working promoter of the University.

AIR FORCE CHORUS

Meyer, G.

The Air Force R.O.T.C. Chorus was very active during the school year, performing in towns of the western part of the state and for numerous activities on the campus and in the city of Missoula. Entertaining of clubs, (such as Rotary), performing for churches, cadet luncheons, and being on television programs were part of the chorus activities for the year. On Occasion the Men's Chorus has been joined by members from the Angel Flight to perform numbers from popular musicals. These programs have been well received throughout the area. At other times the Cadet Chorus has combined with the MSU Men's Glee Club for such programs as the annual Christmas Concert. The Chorus is directed by Mr. Joseph Mussulman of the MSU music department; Captain LaVere Wareing is the Air Force R.O.T.C. adviser.

Newman Center

Standing: Mike Stephens, Lou Sullivan. Seated: Karel Lorenzen, Father Ferguson, Hazel Wilson.

One of the most active groups on campus is the Newman Club comprised of all Roman Catholic students. It sponsored the Mardi Gras, spring songfest competition among living groups, provided Sunday Mass in the Music School Auditorium, and offered religious instruction. The Bishop of Helena purchased the Law House from the University for the Newman Club, and renamed it the Newman Center for all Roman Catholic students on campus. It was occupied by twenty-three male members of the Newman Club during spring quarter.

Judy McCaffry and Louis Garcia reign at the Mardi Gras dance.

Students registered for membership with the Young Republicans during the pre-election days fall quarter.

The Young Republicans undertook the immense task of aiding the 1960 Republican candidates. During fall quarter members helped with voting, conducted opinion polls, contacted various persons desiring to work for the Republican campaign and held rallies and parades. In addition to campaigning the Young Republicans were quite interested in studying the general political organization of the state and nation.

Alpha Phi

Something new for the Alpha Phis this year were the weekly Monday evening talks by guest speakers from the university administration and faculty. The Alpha Phis kept busy with participation in the Heart Fund drive; representation on student committees and in campus activities; keeping up the normal "greek" social life; and of course—studies.

Kappa Alpha Theta

The Thetas returned to school fall quarter to find their home at 1020 Gerald newly interior decorated. The "KAT's" continued to occupy many of the positions in campus activities and furnished the campus with more than its share of queens.

Contributions are given by the Thetas to the Institute of Logopedics at Wichita, Kansas.

Besides participating in activities and working for top grades, the Kappa Alpha Thetas find time to sponsor social functions such as their semiformal with the Kappa Kappa Gammas during fall quarter.

Delta Theta Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi, the youngest fraternity at MSU, received its charter May 26, 1957.

Along with the usual firesides, exchanges and informal gatherings, the Delta Sigs have three main social functions. Fall quarter they instituted their first "Playboy Party," choosing Stephanie Pedersen as their "Playmate." Winter quarter the Delta Sig Dream Girl, Gail Saterlie, was crowned at the annual Carnation Ball. In the spring Delta Sigs and their dates romped in the woods at Seeley Lake for the Sailor's Ball.

Sigma Chi

In 1904 a local fraternity was founded at MSU. Helped by Professor Scheusch, it later "went national" and became known as Beta Delta of Sigma Chi. Prior to moving into the present home at 1110 Gerald, Sigma Chi lived in what are now the Sigma Phi Epsilon and Theta Chi houses in that order.

The year started with a bang with the annual Derby Day, a form of track and field events for new sorority pledges. The Halloween Party and the French Party were the major events of fall quarter. On the last Sunday of Autumn quarter Sigma Chi held its annual Christmas Kiddie Party for over a hundred underprivileged children. The year was highlighted when the Jolly Sigs sang the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi song to Miss Susie Frizelle at the annual Sweetheart Ball.

Sigma Nu

Gamma Phi Chapter of Sigma Nu is the oldest national fraternity on the campus of Montana State University. Since it was installed in 1905, over one thousand men have been chosen to experience the activities and associations of Gamma Phi.

Socially, Sigma Nu is held in high regard for its Barn Dance of fall quarter, the Pledge function during the winter, and the formal Piggee Dinner of spring quarter. The social calendar is supplemented by numerous firesides, treehangings and the "White Star" serenades, along with many impromptu innovations, such as the "Chicken Hop," the spring raft trip down the Blackfoot river and swimming, skating and toboggan parties.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Sigma Phi Epsilon, the "Fraternity with a Heart," was established on the Montana State University campus in 1918. It is the third oldest fraternity on the campus and has graduated 500 brothers since its founding.

Having the only full-time fraternity house mother on campus helped social life greatly. The brothers spent many weekend nights dancing and visiting with their dates in the house. The major functions were the fall quarter Queen of Hearts Ball and the winter quarter Swamp Stomp. It was an active year at the house with the red door.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Montana Beta chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was chartered on February 12, 1927. The SAE's then lived at 541 Eddy, but they moved to 1120 Gerald, their present home, four years later.

Although proud of their reputation on campus as "the singing fraternity," the Sig Alphas did not confine themselves to serenading sorority houses. They topped all fraternities in scholarship, and were winners of the Greek intramural athletic trophy. The fall and winter of 1960-61 showed that the SAE's were picking up where they left off the previous school term. The Sig Alphas again led fraternity row in scholarship for fall quarter, and waltzed home with the first-place trophy in fraternity basketball, during the winter.

Poor Minervall

Hey! Is this all we're going to get?

Synadelphic provides an economical place for girls to live and also develops cooperation between the girls living and working together.

The girls maintain a grade average usually above all other living groups. They sponsor functions each quarter and participate in university activities.

This women's co-op began in 1942 in connection with the School of Religion. In 1947 it became a regular living group. Mrs. Galt has been house-mother since 1950.

Standing; left to right: Mabel Myrich, Helen Hancock, Janice Thruston, Bev Stary, Linda Wasley, Betty Brown, Martha Olsen, Karen Renwick, Joyce Christensen, Kathy Scholl, Jean Madsen.
Seated: Mary Janson, Laura Wolverton, Kay Garber, Nola Terentiff, June Genger, Donna Goodrich, Judy Ashihara.

Synadelphic

Elrod men are usually in the top rank scholastically, but life at Elrod is never dull. Wing parties, impromptu gatherings, and organized functions, including a dinner dance, help the men relax. Telephones are handy and forever busy.

Mrs. Berry served again as "our mother away from home," for the Elrod fellows.

OFFICERS COUNCIL

President is Carl Cain; secretary, Bill Davis; social chairman, Mark Vadheim; and athletic chairman, Rudy Reimold.

Elrod Hall

Turner Hall means home to the main body of upperclass non-affiliated MSU women. These girls maintain a busy social life by many organized teas, firesides, and functions such as the fall Barn Dance and winter formal.

The independents of Turner hold their share of campus offices and usually score high in women's intramural sports.

At least once a year the Turner Hall gals find time to steal Bertha, the Foresters' traditional sweetheart,—usually just before the annual Foresters' Ball.

Two Turner Hall girls escape to their room for a quiet evening of studying.

Virginia Praast, Margaret Shea and Shannon Shea are off to supper as soon as the rest of the "clan" gets here.

Traditional fall function for the freshman Triangle is the Peppermint Prince Ball. Peppermint Prince Rene Austin, 1960-61, and his date Margot Latimer lead the grand march after the crowning.

BRANTLY HALL

Brantly Hall is the headquarters of the three-dorm freshman women's Triangle and receives the rush at closing hours. This year Brantly teamed up with Phi Sigma Kappa to win First place in the Homecoming Float contest.

Windy Wilson was Social Chairman of Brantly hall and Beverly Boorman was President of the hall.

The Triangle is made up of the three Freshman Dorms and function jointly for the Peppermint Prince Ball, the South Seas Party Spring Quarter, sing for the Newman Song Fest and sponsor the annual Spring Tea.

Triangle officers who governed the entire freshman dorm were (from top to bottom) Beverly Boorman, President of Brantly; Mary O'Connor, President of Corbin Hall; Mary McCarthy, President of the Triangle; Bertha Kremer, Secretary of Triangle and Marianne Judd, Treasurer of Triangle.

Seated: Diane Mossey, Judy Thomas, Marva Kirby, Louise Johnson, Karel Lorenzen, Myrna Eyerly.
Standing: Jordis Erickson, Sharon Dodge, Penny Lucas (Head Junior Sponsor), Ellen Parker, and Judy Davison.

Junior Sponsors live in the freshman women's dorm to help curb homesickness, provide needed advice and a shoulder for crying purposes.

North Corbin is the hall which links the dorm system together and is the youngest of the three. North Corbin won fame this year by placing first in the W.R.A. swimming competition and also the intramural basketball meet.

North Corbin Officers were Patti O'Neil, Social Chairman, and Ann Wohlwe, President.

Corbin officers were Mary O'Conner, President, and Alice MacDonald, Social Chairman.

Corbin Hall is home for another third of the freshman women, who participated in the Triangle activities, joined in W.R.A. sports, and provided a Christmas serenade for the men on campus. Corbin, along with her sister halls, received its share of pin-nings and serenades.

THANKS . . .

Well, the year has passed swiftly and once again it is time for the editor to say good-bye and to express her appreciation to all those who have contributed to the success of the book.

First, my thanks to all the staff members who spent so much time and energy on weekends, evenings and vacations working on the various sections of the book . . .

To Sharon Blaszek and her assistants, Bev Hughes, Nancy Long, and Pat Serafine, for the Royalty, Athletics, and Student Government sections.

To Jim Weiler and his assistant, Bill Lucey, for the Organizations, Living Groups, and Fine Arts sections. Special thanks to Jim for finishing the Index.

To Judy Rodgers, Mary Ellen Cawley, and Sue Greenfield for the Undergraduates section.

To Larry Juelts for handling the finances.

It has been said that a yearbook is only as good as its pictures. Thus, a good deal of credit for the success of the 1961 Sentinel goes to our Sentinel photographers, Doug Paulson, Whitey McGill, Diane Boehler, and especially to Dale Graff. Our thanks also to the Haugen-McKay Co., Catlin's Studio, Lee Nye, the Stanley Color Lab, Cyrile VanDuser, the News Service, the Montana Kaimen and all the individuals who contributed pictures to the book.

Of course, the staff members of the 1961 Sentinel could not have completed their work in the short time allowed if it hadn't been for the help and support of the following people . . .

Troy F. Crowder, Assistant to the President, who served as consultant on bids and contracts.

Cyrile VanDuser, who was our adviser, staunch supporter and photographer when necessary.

William "Bill" Kenney, who served as the liason man between the Sentinel and the Taylor Publishing Company through his many long-distance calls and personal visits.

Walter Hook, chairman of the Art Department, who generously gave of his time and advice in choosing colors for the cover.

Marshall Holmberg, who did the art work for the cover and title page.

Doug Baldwin, who did the line drawings that appear in the Living Groups section.

Robert Catlin, who came so often to take the individual student pictures and who also took the picture of President Newburn that appears on page 50.

Again I say "Thanks" to all of you. The 1961 Sentinel could never have gone to press without your help.
